HOW TO USE a Population Map

Apply Map and Globe Skills

DIRECTIONS: The table at the right gives recent population densities for states in the Northeast. Look at the map key on the next page, and choose a different color to fill each empty box in the key. Then use the information in the table to decide which color should be used for each state. Color the states to match the key. Then answer the questions below.

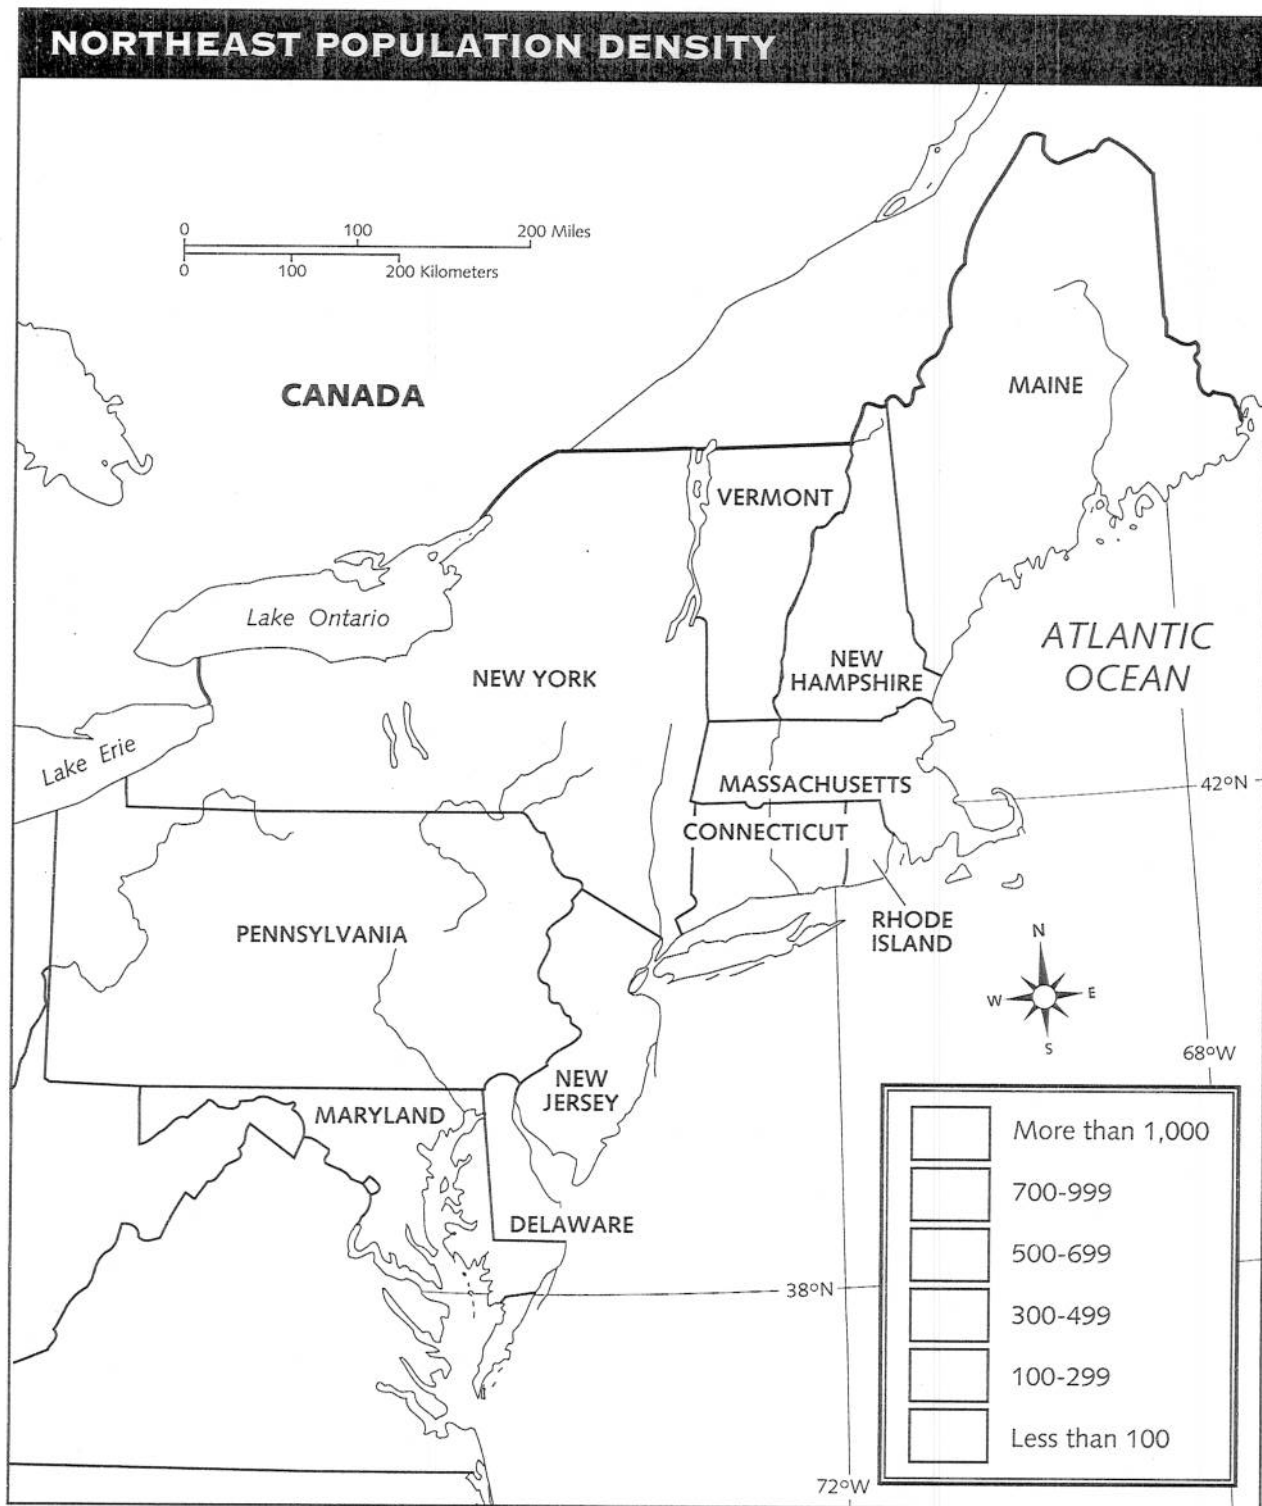

STATE	POPULATION DENSITY (people per square mile)
Connecticut	676
Delaware	371
Maine	40
Maryland	519
Massachusetts	777
New Hampshire	130
New Jersey	1,077
New York	385
Pennsylvania	269
Rhode Island	948
Vermont	64

1. Which state in the Northeast has the lowest population density?

2. Which state in the Northeast has the highest population density?

3. New York is a large state, and it has the country's largest city. But New York's population density is lower than that of several other states in the Northeast.
How is that possible? _____

DIRECTIONS: Find New Jersey and Vermont on the map. On a separate sheet of paper, write a paragraph that describes how these two states might be different because of their different population densities.
