

Fish—Eyewitness Video

1. There are more species of fish than all the birds, _____, amphibians, and _____ added together.
2. Salmon travel _____ miles a day when migrating downstream.
3. Fish contain a _____ skeleton supported on their spine.
4. To maintain their buoyancy, fish have a swim bladder which is a bag filled partly with _____.
5. Fish use _____ to breathe.
6. Fish have a _____ which is a special tube filled with fluid and jelly and can sense tiny changes in water movement and the fish _____ its surroundings.
7. All fish have external protection called _____.
8. Scales are made of hard _____.
9. A fish hears by its _____ which feels pressure waves from the water movement.
10. Eels navigate by the use of _____.
11. Eels can kill their prey with a _____ volt surge.
12. Fish can _____ to communicate.
13. The sea anemone is home to _____ fish.
14. Most fish reproduce by laying eggs _____ outside the body in the water.
15. The male seahorse rears the young, fertilizing and storing the eggs in a _____.
16. Walking catfish can stay out of water for _____ hours covering over _____ on land.
17. Out of the 3000-5000 eggs originally laid, only _____ or _____ salmon will complete the journey back to the breeding grounds.