

Amphibians—Eyewitness Video

1. The largest group of amphibians are the _____ and _____.
2. The toad's skin is _____ and knobby.
3. The frog's skin is _____ and smooth.
4. The toad has _____ glands behind each eye.
5. Some frogs can jump up to _____ times their own length.
6. The tadpole loses its _____ and grows _____.
7. Hearing is _____ in frogs and toads.
8. Amphibians only see in _____ and _____.
9. The _____ dart frog is the most poisonous of all. Its skin could kill _____ people.
10. After _____ weeks, a tadpole grows back legs.
11. After _____ weeks, a tadpole grows front legs and lungs.
12. The frog's croak is used by adults to seek a _____.
13. It is during amplexus when _____ are laid and fertilized.
14. One toad can lay up to _____ eggs in one year.
15. Baby frogs are called _____.