

Reptiles—Eyewitness Video

1. Reptile means things that _____.
2. All reptiles have _____ skin.
3. Reptiles are _____ - blooded.
4. The turtle's backbone has become a _____.
5. A tortoise can live for over a _____ years.
6. Sea turtles can stay under the water for over _____ at a time without taking a single _____.
7. Crocodiles can't _____ so they must twist their prey to kill it.
8. Alligators have a more _____ snout than a crocodile.
9. The largest reptile families include the _____ and _____.
10. The biggest snake can have _____ vertebrae, each with its own pair of _____.
11. The tongue of the snake tastes molecules in the _____.
12. A chameleon's _____ is longer than its body.
13. Reptiles were the first animals to lay _____ with shells.
14. When a snake swallows an egg, there are special _____ on the inside of the spine to break the egg.
15. Some snakes also have special heat sensitive _____ in their lips for detecting warm _____.
16. There are about 30,000-40,000 human _____ each year from snake bites.
17. The Komodo dragon is the largest lizard in the world getting up to _____ feet in length.
18. Many lizards can shed their _____ to evade capture.