

The Korean War

1950-1953

Pages: 652-656

Student Objectives

- Observe the ways Communism expanded in Asia and set the stage for the Korean War.
- Learn who fought in the Korean War and about the wars stages.
- Discover the different effects of the Korean War.

I. Nicknames of the Korean War:

A.

B.

II. Causes:

A. China's Civil War

1.

B. Japan's loss of territory

1.

2.

a.

-Leader will be:

b.

-Leader will be:

III. Invasion:

A. On June 27, 1950, North Korean troops will cross the

B. North Korean forces will push South to the

C.

D. A UN meeting was called to deal with the invasion. The Soviet Union will walk out of the meeting giving the United States unanimous approval for a resolution to call on member nations to come to the support of South Korea.

E.

F.

G. General MacArthur's developed the Inchon invasion which:

H.

I.

J. China warned the forces not to push any further north. MacArthur ignored the warning and in November, the Chinese Army crossed the Yalu into North Korea and attacked coalition forces.

K. The Chinese and North Korean forces will push the coalition forces back to the 38th parallel where the war will remain for the next 3 years in a stalemate.

L. Douglas MacArthur wanted permission to invade China. Truman said no, and MacArthur attacked Truman's policies. On April 11, 1951,

M.

N.

IV. Effects:

A.

B.

C.

D.

E.

F. Shaped future U.S. policy in Asia

1.

2.

