RED NIGHTMARE

You will be watching a video that follows the life of a normal American family in the 1950's-1960's. Watch and write down those things you see that are part of the daily life then. The father will then go to sleep and relive his life under a communist society. Write down those things that are different then his normal life. On the back, write a 25 word abstract that summarizes what the video covered.
